THE many friends in this county deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ballou, of Lancaster, in the loss of their pretty and bright little daughter, Pattie Ballou. The little idol of their household had been in wretched health for a long time and death must have been a sweet relief to her.

THE papers, in speaking of the sale of a portion of the Thomas Metcalf farm by H. P. Hawkins to Newton Lane, of Fayette, say it is in Boyle county. It is a mistake. This magnificent body of land, for which Mr. Lane paid $100 per acre, lies in Lincoln county, nearly a mile from the Boyle county line.

THE Central Kentucky Medical Association will convene in Harrodsburg, on Thursday, Oct. 18th, at 11 o'clock A. M. Dr. John T. Hunn will open the discussion on "Serum Therapy" and Dr. J. Tom Price will make report on section of "Materia Medica and Therapeutics," Dr. Steele Bailey, Secretary, tells us.

WHILE driving in from her farm yesterday, Mrs. M. Hayden Welch narrowly escaped being killed by a freight train at the crossing at Logan's creek, near Mr. H. J. Darst's. She did not observe the train until it was nearly upon her. By whipping her horse she got over the crossing only a few seconds ahead of the train.

YOUR attention is called to the following public sales which will occur this week: T. W. Wallis, near McKinney on Thursday; W. E. Amon, on Logan's Creek, two miles from Stanford on the same day; Mrs. Mary C. Feland, on the Danville pike, four miles from Stanford, to-day. See advertisements in this issue of what they have to dispose of.

TO THE TAX-PAYERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY:—I, or one of my deputies, will be at the following places next week to collect taxes: Mt. Salem, Tuesday; McKinney, Friday; Hustonville, Wednesday, and Moreland, Thursday. The penalty of six per cent. goes to the State this year instead of the sheriff and taxes must be paid before Nov. 1 to avoid the penalty. T. J. Hill, sheriff.

ALCORN.—Mr. David J. Alcorn died last week and was buried at Hustonville, his old home. He is survived by his wife and six children, who reside at Bloomington, Ill. Mr. Alcorn was nearly 60 years old and was a kind-hearted, clever gentleman and an upright, honorable citizen. He married a sister of Mr. George B. Cooper, of this place, and was related to the several families of Alcorns in this county.

THE entertainment given at the Graded School Auditorium by Miss Nannie Barbee Friday evening, was in every respect enjoyable. Beyond doubt Miss Barbee is an artist in her chosen line. In the delineation of the old time Negro character as it is exhibited by a faultless imitation of dialect and pronunciation, she is without a rival. Those who are too young to know personally anything of the domestic relations between master and slave are both entertained and instructed. They are given something in the nature of an object lesson, which teaches them, as was most happily said by Hon. P. M. McRoberts in a felicitous introduction of Miss Barbee, that the institution of slavery, though indefensible on moral grounds, had its brighter side in the mutual attachments between the white and black members of the same household. Those whose memories carry them back 50 years had called to their minds vivid recollections of the faithful old man servant and the affectionate "black mammy," both of whom ruled the "young master" and "young missus" with undisputed sway. In a word, this community is indebted to Miss Barbee for an entertainment chaste, elevated and enjoyable, which will be pleasantly remembered. The ladies of the Stanford Literary Club, under whose auspices the rendition was given, merit public thanks. Just before Miss Barbee began her entertainment, Miss Berta Jean Penny favored the audience with a whistling solo which was enthusiastically received. Mrs. Penny played her accompaniment.

My stock of winter lap robes is in. Call and see them. J. C. McClary.

THE Domestic Sewing Machines in different styles for sale at Mueller's.

ATTENTION!—Don't fail to call at Tribble & Pence's and see their new Fall lines of furniture, carpets, rugs, etc.

I DESIRE to sell privately at once, one two-horse wagon, one mowing machine and one steel roller. W. J. Aston, Stanford, R. R. No. 1.

THE ladies are cordially invited to come out and hear Gov. Beckham this afternoon. A portion of the room will be reserved for them.

OLD WOOD.—Mr. John Bright, Sr., has on his watch chain a small piece of wood taken from the old Carpenter's station fort in the West End. The timber was cut in 1779, he tells us and he has been in possession of a small piece of it for over 40 years.

DUNAWAY.—Mrs. Emma Dunaway, wife of John Dunaway, died at her home near Hall's Gap Saturday after a long illness. She is survived by her husband and eight children. Deceased was a devout member of the Baptist church and a good woman. Her burial occurred at Fairview Sunday afternoon.

NOTICE.—To the Lincoln county policy holders of The Mutual Life Ins. Co., of New York. It will be to your interest to confer with me before signing any proxy sent or offered you by any one in which you are asked to vote for a certain coterie of trustees at the coming election of members who will compose the new board. R. M. Newland, Agent.

THE Royer Brothers in "Next Door" pleased a large audience in Park theater Wednesday evening. The acrobatic feats performed by the brothers were very difficult, and the way in which they were handled proved them to be artists. The entire program was filled by stars of the profession, and every one went away pleased, hoping for the future attractions to be of the same order.—Shenandoak, Pa. See this great show at Walton's Opera House next Thursday night, Oct. 18.
